

The Australian Sociological Association (TASA) Health Sociology Thematic Group invites you to attend a one day Symposium titled:

Health Sociology in Australia: Where to From Here?

Hosted by the:

Faculty of Arts & Sciences, Australian Catholic University (ACU)
25a Barker Road, Strathfield NSW
Gleeson Theatre, Main Campus

on

Monday 8 July, 2013

Time: 9am-4.30pm

Register by: Monday 1 July 2013

The Symposium celebrates the 50th anniversary of TASA

The symposium offers a fantastic opportunity to hear world renowned health sociologists discuss their work, and reflect on health sociology in Australia. The program comprises presentations and workshops from presenters below, and features a special keynote address by Professor Arthur Frank, renowned for his work on 'illness narratives'.

International Keynote Speaker

Professor Arthur Frank, Calgary University
Illness Experience, Sociological Imagination, and a Commitment to Theory

Dr. Fran Collyer, University of Sydney;
Convener, TASA Health Sociology TG

Professor Deborah Lupton, Senior Principal
Research Fellow, University of Sydney

Professor Evan Willis, LaTrobe University

Associate Professor Toni Schofield,
Behavioural & Social Sciences in Health,
University of Sydney

The symposium is for sociologists, research higher degree students, those working in health, medical and social work fields with an interest in health sociology and social scientists in general. The seminar is being held in 2013 to commemorate 50 years of the Australian Sociological Association (TASA).

Non TASA members: $50 employed / $25 full-time students

TASA members: $45 employed (f/t or p/t); $20 research higher degree (including doctoral) students

ACU Faculty of Arts and Sciences staff and students register for free.

Registration includes morning and afternoon tea and lunch.

Email sociologyseminar.msm@acu.edu.au for registration online and full program.

Payment is by credit card through ACU online.